STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- 1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- 2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- 3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- 4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- 5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- 7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- 8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- 9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- 11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
- 13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. I understand additional information regarding these conditions is available at the www.uscourts.gov .

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1. Home Detention. For the first 450 days of supervised release, you are restricted to your residence at all times except for; scheduled religious services; pre-approved medical or mental health treatment; pre-approved attorney consultation; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities as preapproved by your officer. Pursuant to U.S.S.G. 5.F1.2, Application Note 4, home detention is intended to be punitive. The court determines that to be sufficiently punitive, the home environment must be rendered devoid of entertainment facilities. Such facilities include television, "smart" or "streaming" TV. Reading materials are not prohibited entertainment facilities. You are not permitted to use the golf-related facilities nearby your residence.
- 2. While on Home Detention, you will be monitored by a form of location monitoring technology, which will be GPS Monitoring (including hybrid GPS), for a period of 360 days and shall abide by all technology requirements. You shall pay all or part of the costs of participation in the location monitoring program as directed by the court or probation officer.
- 3. While on Home Detention, you must reside and remain at your Ray, Michigan, residence.
- 4. While on Home Detention, you must not access the internet or use or possess any electronic devices capable of connecting to the internet. This includes any broadcast television or on-line "streaming," or other access to televised entertainment of any kind.
- 5. While on Home Detention, you must not have any guests or visitors at your residence without prior approval by of the probation officer as to the purpose and duration of the visit. You may not host any meals, parties, or celebratory events of any kind. Visitors are prohibited from bringing into your home any entertainment facilities or equipment.
- 6. While on Home Detention, you must participate in the Computer/Internet Monitoring Program (CIMP) administered by the United States Probation Department. You must abide by the Computer/Internet Monitoring Program Participant Agreement in effect at the time of supervision and comply with any amendments to the program during the term of supervision. Due to the advances in technology the Court will adopt the amendments to the Computer/Internet Monitoring Program as necessary. For the purposes of accounting for all computers, hardware, software and accessories, you must submit your person, residence, computer and/or vehicle to a search conducted by the U.S. Probation Department at a reasonable time and manner. You shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition. You shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information including billing records (telephone, cable, internet, satellite, etc.).
- 7. You must pay the financial penalty in accordance with the Schedule of Payments sheet of this judgment. You must also notify the court of any changes in economic circumstances that might affect the ability to pay this financial penalty. You must make monthly installment payments on any remaining balance of the special assessment and fine at a rate of $2,500.00 per month.
- 8. You must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.

You must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without advanced approval of the probation officer.
